

Dear Professor [name],

As you may be aware, Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year, starts the evening of Wednesday, October 2nd and ends the evening of Friday, October 4th. As a Jewish Badger, I will be observing Rosh Hashanah which will impact my ability to [assignment/evening event] in [class].

I kindly ask for your understanding and support in allowing me to [x].

I assure you I am fully committed to maintaining my academic responsibilities and completing all coursework, and with your flexibility I will be able to fully engage in the course.

I would greatly appreciate your consideration of my request. Please let me know if any additional information can help you in making your decision. The Center for Interfaith Dialogue has more information about Rosh Hashanah resources and policies as well:
